GOVERNMENT
Exhibit
108

© Donald M. Jones/Minden Pictures

NATIONAL WILDLIFE FEDERATION

11100 Wildlife Center Drive
Reston, VA 20190-5362
1-800-822-9919
www.nwf.org

Sea otters and their cousin, the river otter, can look and even act quite similarly — can you tell which is which? Sometimes the sea otter floats above the water on its back, while the river otter tends to swim belly-down. Additionally, as true marine mammals, sea otters move around clumsily on land and rarely leave the water. To learn more about NWF protecting wildlife and our waters, visit www.nwf.org/cleanwater

A3814

...it was of you.

(and your new job!)

Happy 21st B-Day!

I love you buddy!

Dad

I. O. U.

GOOD FOR UP TO

$400.00 TOWARD

PISTOL & CWP PERMIT

I LOVE YOU!

DAD

(BASED UPON JOB!)