I allege that Judge Brett Michael Kavanaugh committed judicial misconduct during his testimony before the Senate on September 27, 2018. His conduct revealed a prejudicial partisanship and a willingness to make flimsily supported accusations, both qualities unbecoming of a federal judge. The Washington Post has made the full transcript of the that day's hearing available to the public at (https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/national/wp/2018/09/27/kavanaugh-hearing-transcript/?utm_term=.019c8a3eb836). I would like to draw your attention to the following statement:

"This whole two-week effort has been a calculated and orchestrated political hit, fueled with apparent pent-up anger about President Trump and the 2016 election. Fear that has been unfairly stoked about my judicial record. Revenge on behalf of the Clintons. And millions of dollars in money from outside left-wing opposition groups. This is a circus. The consequences will extend long past my nomination. The consequences will be with us for decades. This grotesque and coordinated character assassination will dissuade competent and good people of all political persuasions, from serving our country. And as we all know, in the United States political system of the early 2000s, what goes around comes around."

Judge Kavanaugh's presence on the bench after making such an inappropriately partisan statement during Congressional testimony calls into question the court's integrity and impartiality, especially as it relates to cases involving Democratic members of Congress or liberal advocacy groups. Furthermore, his unfounded claim of conspiracy may lead to a substantial and widespread lowering of public confidence in the courts among reasonable people, as reasonable people know that judges ought to hold themselves to a higher standard in regards to truth, proof, and temperament.
