RE: Complaint of Misconduct Against Judge Brett Kavanaugh

I am writing today to file a complaint about Judge Brett M. Kavanaugh, a judge on the US Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

I believe Judge Kavanaugh's September 27, 2018 appearance before the Senate Judiciary Committee may be evidence of misconduct in his treatment of litigants, attorneys or others. Judge Kavanaugh treated Senate Judiciary Committee members in a demonstrably egregious and hostile manner. He also did not demonstrate steady judicial temperament throughout his appearance. Further, I believe that Judge Kavanaugh engaged in partisan political activity by making inappropriately partisan statements.

In addition to what appears to be credible allegations of improper sexual behavior on the part of Judge Kavanaugh, my concern in filing this complaint is focused largely on Judge Kavanaugh's misconduct and hostile manner and treatment of others during the September 27, 2018 Senate hearings as well as making inappropriate partisan statements about the Democratic party, the Clintons and other groups that were "called out" in his opening statement.

Although I do not share the judicial philosophy of Judge Kavanaugh, I share a core philosophy with all Americans that we expect our Federal judges to possess and demonstrate the highest regard for personal integrity, commitment to truth, impartiality, sound judicial temperament and dignity in the office. And on this matter, I do not believe that Judge Kavanaugh has fulfilled his obligation as a judge.

Thank you,
