Bold entries designate current temporary judgeships.

[1] Temporary extended by subsequent statute. See Table J, Chronological History of Authorized Judgeships in U.S. District Courts.

[2] Judgeships created or made permanent by Pub. L. No. 107-273 were effective on July 15, 2003.

[3] 83 Cong. Ch. 6, February 10, 1954, amended 79 Cong. Ch. 600, July 24, 1946, to transfer the temporary judgeship originally created to serve all three districts to the Middle District if a vacancy occurred in the Middle District during the term of the temporary judgeship.

[4] Judgeship moved to West Virginia Northern when it was converted to permanent.

[5] The statewide temporary judgeship made permanent in 1954 was transferred to the Southern District only in 1983.

[6] The temporary originally created for the Eastern District was transferred to the Northern District and made permanent.

[7] The statewide temporary judgeship made permanent in 1949 was transferred to the Middle District in 1966.
