

Instructions for Schedule J: Your Expenses

How to Fill Out Schedule J

Schedule J: Your Expenses (Official Form 6J) provides an estimate the monthly expenses, as of the date you file for bankruptcy, for you, your dependents, and the other people in your household whose income is included on Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 6I). On your initial filing in Part 2 select “Initial estimate at the beginning of the case”.

If you are married and are filing individually, include your non-filing spouse’s expenses unless you are separated.

Do not include expenses that other members of your household pay directly from their income if you did not include that income on Schedule I. For example, if you have a roommate and you divide the rent and utilities and you have not listed your roommate’s contribution to household expenses in line 11 of Schedule I, you would list only your share of these expenses on Schedule J.

Show all totals as monthly payments. If you have weekly, quarterly, or annual payments, calculate how much you would spend on those items every month.

Do not list as expenses any payments on credit card debts incurred before filing bankruptcy.

Do not include business expenses on this form. You have already accounted for those expenses as part of determining net business income on Schedule I.

On line 20, do not include expenses for your residence or for any rental or business property. You have already listed expenses for your residence on lines 4 and 5 of this form. You listed the expenses for your rental and business property as part of the process of determining your net income from that property on Schedule I (line 8a).

If you have nothing to report for a line, write $0.

If, after filing Schedule J, you need to file an estimate of expenses in a chapter 13 case for a date after your bankruptcy, you may complete a supplemental Schedule J. To do so you must check the “supplement” box at the top of the form and fill in the date.

Joint Filers with Separate Households

If you are filing jointly and Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 keep separate households, fill out a separate Schedule J for each debtor. Check the box at the top of page 1 of the form for Debtor 2 to show that a separate form is being filed. The total from line 22 of Debtor 2’s Schedule J should be added into the total expenses for Debtor 1 at line 22 on Debtor 1’s Schedule J. Lines 23a, 23b, and 23c do not need to be completed on Debtor 2’s Schedule J because total expenses and net income will be calculated on Debtor 1’s Schedule J.

Understand the terms used in this form

This form uses you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, this form uses you to ask for information from both debtors. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Things to remember when filling out this form

- Be as complete and accurate as possible.
- If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
- If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information.
- Do not list a minor child’s full name. Instead, fill in only the child’s initials and the full name and address of the child’s parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent, 123 Main St., City, State). 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m) and 9037.

Do not file these instructions with your bankruptcy filing package. Keep them for your records.
