

JP3 SOLICITATION PROVISIONS AND PROCUREMENT CLAUSES

Appendix B - Solicitation Provisions and Procurement Clauses

B.1.1 Applicability

This Appendix sets forth general provisions and clauses to be included in solicitations and contracts for products and services. Applicable provisions and clauses must be included in Sections A through M of the solicitation and Sections A through K of the contract, following the Uniform Contract Format prescribed in Appendix A, A.2.1.

B.1.2 Numbering of Provisions and Clauses

Provisions and clauses are numbered with the prefix “JP3 Clause” or “JP3 Provision” followed by the chapter or appendix prescribing their use in the JP3. Thus JP3 Clause 1-1 is in Chapter 1, JP3 Provision 2-1 is in Chapter 2, and JP3 Provision B-1 is prescribed in this Appendix B.

Beneath each clause or provision title are instructions as to where in the JP3 the prescription is located and which section (A through M) of the solicitation or clause where it is to be inserted. The prescription will indicate the circumstances for use of the provision or clause, i.e. “JP3 Clause number is X-X” is to be inserted in Section X for all solicitations and contracts.” When the contracting officer determines that a clause or provision is applicable to the procurement in accordance with its prescription, it must be included in the indicated section of the solicitation and contract.

The Appendix B Matrix is a document to assist COs in locating clauses, provisions, their prescription(s), the applicable UCF section, whether it can be included by reference or must be included in full text, and which type(s) of contract for which the clause or provision is appropriate.
