Note: Due to a change in methodology, numbers for years prior to 2015 may not match numbers previously published in this table. Weighted filings for 1990 and 1995 were derived from the 1987-1993 district court time study by the Federal Judicial Center (FJC). Weighted filings beginning for years beginning with 2000 are based on the current case weights developed by the FJC in 2016. Criminal filings include reopens and transfers. For 1990 and 1995, criminal weighted filings excluded felony defendants. Civil cases reopened, remanded, or transferred to the district by order of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation are excluded.

¹ Authorized judgeships for 1990-2011 include territorial courts, although data for these courts are not reflected in the total weighted filings per authorized judgeship. Territorial courts are excluded from the district court case weight studies.

² Beginning in 2002, supervised release hearings have been included in weighted filing totals.

³ Twelve-month period ending June 30.
