Committee Note

Question 4 has been amended to make it clear that only debtors who themselves have an employer identification number (EIN) should list it; they should not include the EIN of their employer or any other entity not filing the petition. Stylistic changes were made to Question 2.