<td>Baltimore, MD</td>
<td>05/30/17</td>
<td>06/02/17</td>
<td>$166,527 (USSC funded)</td>
<td>388 Total</td>
<td>One of the U.S. Sentencing Commission’s (USSC) statutory functions is training and the national seminar is one of the many ways the Commission fulfills that function. Such training ensures that the guidelines are applied in a uniform manner across the nation, thereby reducing unwarranted regional sentencing differences. The national seminar convened federal judges, probation officers, prosecutors, and defense attorneys in one location for a series of expert panels and presentations over a three-day period covering such topics as “Introduction to the Sentencing Guidelines”, “Advanced Guideline Application Issues”, and “Sentencing Ethics for Defense Attorneys and Prosecutors”. Panel members included federal judges and prominent members of the sentencing community.</td>
